Harford County Opens Emergency Services Information Line for Citizens Without Power Following Winter Storm Riley

BEL AIR, Md., (March 5, 2018) - To help citizens who are still without power from Winter Storm Riley, County Executive Barry Glassman has ordered the Harford County Emergency Services information line to open until 10 p.m. today, March 5, and from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Tuesday, March 6, 2018. Calls will be answered by county employees who can respond to questions and connect those in need with resources for daily living until BGE restores their power. The phone number for the information line is 410-838-5800.

For emergencies, please continue to dial 911.

At this time, the county has confirmed that showers will be available to the public at the following locations, thanks to the generosity of these providers:

YMCA – The Ward Y in Abingdon
