Boggs Road Bridge in Forest Hill to Close July 9 for Four Weeks

BEL AIR, Md., (July 1, 2019) - The Boggs Road Bridge, located between High Point Road and Grafton Shop Road in Forest Hill, will be closed beginning on Tuesday, July 9 for approximately four weeks. Harford County Department of Public Works – Bureau of Construction Inspections is closing this section of roadway to allow for cleaning and painting of the bridge over Long Branch, a tributary of Winters Run.

Local residents and emergency crews will have access to their properties up to the work zone, which is located at 1323 Boggs Road, but no traffic will be permitted over the bridge until the work is completed. Travelers should follow posted detour signs or make other arrangements during this closure. Additional information is available by calling 410-638-3217 ext. 2437.

An online map of this and other planned county road closures is on the county website at <http://www.harfordcountymd.gov/1164/Road-Reports>.
