BEL AIR, Md., (March 4, 2024) – Harford County Executive Bob Cassilly has ordered the Harford County flag to be flown at half-staff in honor of Bel Air Police Department Senior Officer Zachary Miller. Miller died on February 28 after a medical emergency. The county flag will be lowered from sunrise to sunset on Thursday, March 7, the day of his interment.

Senior Officer Miller joined the Bel Air Police Force in 1981 and was known for his dedication to the Town of Bel Air and its citizens.

“The citizens of Harford County extend our deepest sympathy to the Miller family and Bel Air Police Department in their time of mourning,” County Executive Bob Cassilly said. “I worked with Zack many times through the years as a resident of Bel Air and in my role as a Bel Air town commissioner.
