Harford County Executive Cassilly Statement on Joppatowne High School Shooting

BEL AIR, Md., (Sept. 6, 2024) – Harford County Executive Bob Cassilly issued the following statement on today's tragic shooting at Joppatowne High School.

"On Tuesday, many of us joined the Joppatowne High School community to welcome students back for the first day of school. Now, three days later, we returned to the school to mourn the senseless loss of a young life.

Harford County is shocked and saddened by the terrible act of violence committed by one student against another, resulting in the death of 15-year-old Warren Curtis Grant. I would like to thank our first responders, courageous school staff, and the community members who came together to render aid to the victim and to assist law enforcement. Our hearts are broken for Warren's family and friends as we pray for healing and peace in our community."
