Harford County Celebrates Employment of Citizens with Differing Abilities

BEL AIR, Md., (Nov. 7, 2024) – Celebrating the employment of citizens with disabilities, County Executive Bob Cassilly and Harford County’s Office of Disability Services and Commission on Disabilities honored individuals and organizations at their annual Employment Recognition Luncheon on October 30 at the Bel Air Armory, in Bel Air.

More than 80 guests attended this inspiring event honoring employees with disabilities who have exhibited exceptional ability and determination in the workplace. The event also recognizes employers, individuals, and organizations that are changing attitudes about people with disabilities in the workforce.

Harford County holds this event in October of each year to coincide with National Disability Employment Awareness Month. This year the national theme was “Access to Good Jobs for All.”

Keynote speakers Melissa Evans, Accessibility Program Supervisor for the Maryland Sephora Distribution Center and employee, Sylva Lexus Green emphasized the importance of companies who provide employment for those with differing abilities.

“One of the key pillars in Sephora’s dedication to inclusion is to be an employer of choice,” said Evans, “this means diverse hiring, ensuring equal pay for equal work and equitable benefits to all.”

“I love working at Sephora,” Lexus Green stated. “Despite having a disability, I am an equal at Sephora.” She also offered a piece of advice, “Don’t let anyone tell you that you can’t do a job or task. You have a voice and don’t let anyone put you down.”

Awards were presented to the following individuals and organizations for their outstanding achievements and support of those with differing abilities for 2023:

- Employer of the Year Award: Harford County Public Schools North Harford Middle School Food & Nutrition Program.
- Employee of the Year Award: Katelyn Hammaker, entrepreneur and employed by Harford County Public Schools/North Harford Middle School Food & Nutrition Program
- Student Worker of the Year Award: Brooke Meyers, employed by Mannequin on Main
- Volunteer of the Year Award: Patrick Rardon
- Accessibility Award: U.S. Army Test & Evaluation Command
- Veteran of the Year Award: Jody B. Jackson

Awards of Merit included two Employee Awards of Merit, given to Matt Moore, employed by Great Wolf Lodge and Keith Street, employed by Chimes DC, APG; a Student Worker Award of Merit, given to Theodore Briones who works with the Future Link Program, Harford Academy; and a Volunteer of the Year Award of Merit given to Joshua Albright.

“We are excited to recognize the skills and outstanding contributions of those with differing abilities in our workforce, and proud to honor local businesses and organizations that support these individuals,” County Executive Bob Cassilly said. “Together, they ensure that every individual who wants to work can prepare for employment and be successful.”
