County Executive Barry Glassman Names Tiffany Stephens Acting Deputy Director of Human Resources

BEL AIR, Md., (April 2, 2015) - Harford County Executive Barry Glassman has named Tiffany S. Stephens acting deputy director in the Department of Human Resources effective April 20, filling a vacancy due to retirement. Ms. Stephens is an experienced human resources professional in the private sector, most recently employed as a compensation analyst for MedStar Health. She will serve in the Glassman administration under HR Director James C. Richardson.

“Tiffany is a Harford County native with thirteen years of HR experience involving a large and diverse workforce,” said County Executive Glassman. “I am pleased that she will be joining my administration and working with our valued employees.”

Tiffany S. Stephens holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the University of Baltimore and a master’s certification in Foundations of HR from the University of Maryland University College. Ms. Stephens began her career in human resources at MedStar Health in Baltimore where she rose through several positions including recruitment specialist, generalist, and compensation analyst. Her experience includes project management, employee relations, onboarding, and human resources software and information systems. She is a Professional in Human Resources (PHR) and professionally certified by the Society for Human Resource Management. She is also an active member of the Maryland Healthcare Human Resources Association, currently serving on the Compensation Committee.

Deputy directors in the executive branch are appointed by the county executive and subject to confirmation by the County Council, in accordance with an amendment to the Harford County Charter approved by voters in November.
